How has UTEP transformed your future?

Each commencement provides UTEP an opportunity to tell a story through the experiences and future plans of a graduate. Visit the commencement website at www.utep.edu/commencement and complete the “Tell Us About Your Story” form. Perhaps you have a friend with a special story you want to share. Tell us how UTEP has helped you or a fellow graduate achieve your goals.

You may want to consider these questions in preparing your response:

- What impact has UTEP had on your life?
- Was there an individual at UTEP who made a significant impact in completing your education?
- Was there a specific turning point, incident, course, or learning experience that sparked your success?
- Have you been accepted to graduate/professional school?
- What are your employment options?
- What honors have you received?
- List other members of your immediate or extended family who are graduates of UTEP (brothers, sisters, spouse, mom, dad, children, cousins, aunts, uncles, grandparents, etc.)

Your story may be chosen to be included in the President’s commencement remarks. The local media may also decide to include your story in their news reports concerning commencement.

To submit your story, please visit the commencement website at www.utep.edu/commencement and complete the online “Tell Us About Your Story” form by November 20, 2015.
